

Oleg Fedorko (M62), UKR – Men's #1 Jumps

Read New World Record

What does this award mean to you: This award for me is a result of daily work done to popularize veteran sport

What were your highlights of 2017: At the World Indoor Championship in Korea on March of 2017, I broke the world high jump record which was set 14 years ago 174cm then set World Record on December in Kiev – 175cm and World Record on January 2018 in Minsk – 176cm

What are your hobbies: My hobbies are underwater hunting and fishing, that's what I do other than athletics

What did / do you for a living: I'm a dentist, maxillofacial surgeon, now retired

Where did you go to school: I grew up and finished school in Ukraine, Lokhvitsa town, Poltava region.