

Rita Hanscom (W63), USA – Women's
#2 Combined Events

What does this award mean to you: Its a privilege to be recognized by WMA and be included with so many talented masters athletes.

What were your highlights of 2017: Attending the regional NCCWMA meet in Toronto, getting the current Olympic uniform, and being part of our awesome American team. I will never forget that. My performances were forgettable. But that experience was extremely memorable.

What else, other than Athletics, do you do: Surfing, bike riding, hiking, walking the dog.

What are your hobbies: I build custom furniture in my home wood shop. I belong to the San Diego Fine Woodworking Association. I also enjoy visiting the national parks in my camper van.

What did / do you for a living: Im currently a Deputy Attorney General for the State of California. I prosecute health care fraud.

Where did you grow up: Tempe, Arizona

Where did you go to school: University of Hawaii and Boston College Law School.

What else is interesting about you: I can still ride a unicycle. I learned as a child.